

Dear Valued Customers & Partners,

Change of filing requirement for Register of Directors in Cayman Islands commenced on 2 November 2015

We received notification recently from The Ministry of Financial Services in Cayman Islands a change of Companies (Amendment) Law, 2015 commenced on Monday, 2 November 2015.

Please note that the Cayman Government has published the attached Companies (Amendment) Bill, 2015 on 17 July 2015. The Amendments relate to Sections 55 and 56 of the Companies Law, on the filing deadline and penalty imposed on filing the Register of Directors and Officers of Cayman companies with the Cayman Registry.

This amendment law, which was passed in the Legislative Assembly on 12 August 2015, requires companies to notify the Cayman Islands Registrar of Companies of changes in the information contained in the register of directors and officers, within 60 days of the change. It also establishes a CI$500 (~USD610) maximum penalty per company for a breach of that obligation, and an aggregate penalty of CI$2,500 (~USD3,050) where the same breach occurs in respect of five or more companies.

The amendment law is strictly enforced by the Registrar of Companies and penalty fees shall be imposed in accordance with the amendment law, including against companies where changes in directors and officers occurred but are filed in a late fashion with the Registrar of Companies.

Supplement No. 30 published with Extraordinary
Gazette No. 53 dated 17th July, 2015.

A BILL FOR A LAW TO AMEND THE COMPANIES LAW (2013 REVISION) TO EXTEND THE DEADLINE FOR FILING CHANGES TO
THE REGISTER OF DIRECTORS AND OFFICERS OF A COMPANY
WITH THE REGISTRAR; TO ESTABLISH A MAXIMUM PENALTY
FOR A BREACH OF SECTION 55; AND FOR INCIDENTAL AND CONNECTED PURPOSES

THE COMPANIES (AMENDMENT) BILL, 2015

MEMORANDUM OF OBJECTS AND REASONS

This Bill seeks to amend the Companies Law (2013 Revision).

Clause 1 of the Bill makes provision for the short title of the legislation.

Clause 2 of the Bill amends section 55 of the Companies Law (2013 Revision) referred to as the principal Law. The section creates an obligation on a company to maintain a register of all of the directors and officers of the company and to notify the Registrar of any changes in respect of the directors and officers. Pursuant to this section, the Registrar is to be provided with a copy of the register within ninety days of the registration of the company and notified of changes in the register within thirty days of a change in the information contained in the register. The clause amends the principal Law so that the Registrar is to be provided with a copy of the register within sixty days of the first appointment of any director or officer of the company and notified of changes in the information contained in the register within sixty days of the change.

Clause 3 amends section 56 of the principal Law which provides a penalty for a breach of section 55. The section provides an absolute penalty for any breach of section 55. While a breach of section 55 still attracts a penalty, the clause amends the principal Law so that the application of the penalty is subject to the following -

- (a) if a company breaches the requirement to notify the Registrar of a change in the register more than once, as long as the breaches occur within a sixty day period and the Registrar is notified of the changes on the same day, the breaches will be penalised as one breach; and
- (b) where breaches of section 55 occur in respect of five companies or more, the applicable aggregate penalty shall not exceed two thousand, five hundred dollars which shall be borne equally by the offending companies.

The clause also provides that where the Registrar is satisfied that a breach of section 55 is intentional, a penalty is applicable to the offending company and each director and officer of the company.
