

Global presence, local knowledge

We deliver expert services and practical solutions
to individuals, families, businesses and their professional advisers,
throughout the world.

Independent fiduciary

Newhaven Group is an independent, global provider of trust, corporate administration and private client services.

We have offices in BVI, the Channels Islands, London, Dubai, Mauritius, Hong Kong and New Zealand that all have intimate knowledge of local customs, regulations and legislation.

Our growth over nearly a quarter of a century reflects the excellence of our professionally qualified team. This, coupled with our independence ensures we can assist in the best long-term interests of our clients. The quality of our approach, our lack of bureaucracy, ability to move quickly – and the financial results we deliver mean we can provide better solutions to high net worth individuals and families.

Boutique [boo-teek] n. A speciality business within a larger industry set apart by its exclusive nature and tailored service; notable for its independence, attention to detail and commitment to exceptional standards.

Our services

Private Client

At Newhaven, we provide individuals, families and business owners with private client services that use corporate and fiduciary structures and sophisticated planning techniques to preserve, protect and enhance wealth.

We provide a seamless confidential service across our Group Offices for high net worth individuals and families with multi-national and cross generational interests.

We establish and administer structures for private client needs including:

- Estate / Succession Planning
- Pre-immigration Planning
- Tax Planning
- Family Governance
- Asset Protection
- Wealth Management
- Intellectual Property
- Real Estate
- Political Risk Management
- Forced Heirship Avoidance

Corporate

At Newhaven we provide corporate services in a multitude of industries including:

- Media
- Oil & Gas
- Green Energy
- Automotive
- Finance
- Pharmaceutical
- Leisure
- Telecommunications
- Property
- Mining

We understand the demands of international business and offer set-up and administration of corporate vehicles for a range of purposes. We provide an informed and responsive service to meet the demands of the time-constrained business and maintain a receptive attitude towards innovative and unconventional business concepts.

Business Services

Newhaven is run by business experts, including lawyers, accountants and ex-bankers who understand management and administrative demands. We have in-house staff qualified to provide director, company secretarial and accounting functions.

This team lets us provide administrative support to small start-up and existing businesses, together with ancillary services to ease regulatory and compliance burdens, allowing the principals to focus on running and growing the company.

We also provide outsourced administrative services to much larger blue chip companies and PLCs.

We have particular expertise in support services for the South East-Asian market, providing local accounting, tax compliance, governance, administration and management reporting.

We have unique expertise in listing entities on the Channel Islands Securities Exchange.
